Sch. – personal integrity – has to say through the book (484) That has not been in substantive reference to the book. There have been occasional references of this significance. A thesis of the whole book is that this is true of the entire book. There is but a single unequivocal statement in which (saying, in effect, that K. followed his policy only, but knowing or) in pp 5-74-9. In the Manuscript (p 484) Sch. is with Dago death. He has hardly represented his activity + policy under K. along with the publication of the book, the reason can hardly be space.
